

Self-introduction

1. Having worked as an administrative public official for 20 years, I am proficient in handling civil complaints, support projects, organization management, drafting and proofreading documents such as plans, and licensing duties.
2. In addition, as a graduate of the Department of Electronic Engineering at Inha university, I am proficient in PC assembly, installation and management of Windows and various programs.

Ethereum mining rig installation and mining program connection, Ethereum mining, development of an automated coin trading program using Python, real-time news crawling and messenger delivery, and a video download program completed.

Android app development (force app blocking via time settings, coin QR code orderer, lottery number generator, video player, real-time currency converter, etc.)

Currently running a personal blog using Tistory blog automation

Production and utilization of high-quality generative images through Stable Diffusion AI

Development of Deep Learning Programs for Stock and Stable Diffusion LoRa Models

Experience operating online shopping malls (Dollfie doll Japanese purchasing agency site, Sports Toto information site)

3. I majored in Japanese at a foreign language high school and can converse with Japanese people. I can also translate Japanese.

As the sole breadwinner supporting my family, I have a strong sense of responsibility